

The third week of April is known as “National Wildlife Week.” What is one way you could help conserve or protect the various type of wildlife found around your school and/or neighborhood?