

On January 16, 1932, Dian Fossey was born. Dian is well known for her work with the mountain gorillas in Africa. If you choose one endangered animal to research and become an expert on, which animal would you choose and why? (You may need to use resources in your classroom to learn which animals are endangered.)