

On this day in the year 620 BC Aesop was born in Greece. Aesop is known for his clever fables that include an important lesson for the reader. Using resources in the classroom, read several of Aesop's fables and then try writing a fable of your own.